

Faktaark – Noradavtalen 2020-24

Norad vil inngå ny 5-årig avtale med Norsk Folkehjelp med en total økonomisk ramme på NOK 974 800 000 (fordelt på 5 år).

2020 – 2024:

Program	År	Årlig budsjett	Totalt
Civil Society Influence for Reduced Inequality	5: 2020 - 2024	NOK 161 000 000	NOK 805 000 000
Oil for the Common Good	3: 2020 - 2022	NOK 6 600 000	NOK 19 800 000
Building Resilience and Enhancing Livelihoods in South Sudan	5: 2020 - 2024	NOK 30 000 000	NOK 150 000 000
Totalt			NOK 974 800 000

Antall land: 17 (Myanmar, Kambodsja, Palestina, Libanon, Irak, Sør-Sudan, Rwanda, Mosambik, Zimbabwe, Sør-Afrika, Guatemala, Honduras, El Salvador, Cuba, Bolivia, Ecuador og Colombia)

Antall partnere: Omtrent 150

Mål i programmene

Project stream 1: Civil Society Influence for Reduced Inequality

The expected effect on society is Reduced Inequality (Impact).

The expected effects for the target group (outcome) are:

Outcome 1: Civil society organisations strengthened to influence

Outcome 2: People and communities from the target group acted and participated to influence

Outcome 3: Decision-makers' policies and practices changed

Project stream 2: Oil for the Common Good

The expected effect on society is Reduced Inequality (Impact).

The expected effects for the target group (outcome) are:

Outcome 1: Civil society organisations strengthened to influence

Outcome 2: People and communities from the target group acted and participated to influence

Outcome 3: Decision-makers' policies and practices changed

Project stream 3: Building Resilience and Enhancing Livelihoods in South Sudan

The expected effect on society is Improved food security, enhanced livelihoods and resilience of conflict affected households in South Sudan (Impact).

The expected effects for the target group (outcome) are:

Outcome 1: Improved food production and productivity

Outcome 2: Improved conflict mitigation, natural resource management and resilience and disaster risk capabilities

Outcome 3: Increased and diversified income for youth and women